The following provides key differences of Platinum Advantage when compared to Protector PlatinumSM.

Policy Feature	Protector Platinum	Platinum Advantage	Key Differences
Base Contract
 Definition of Total Disability	An insured is totally disabled if unable to perform with reasonable continuity the substantial and material acts necessary to perform their own occupation in the usual and customary way. If limited practice to a professionally recognized specialty in medicine or law, that specialty will be deemed insured's own occupation.	An insured is totally disabled if unable to perform with reasonable continuity the substantial and material acts necessary to perform his or her regular occupation in the usual and customary way and chooses not to work in any occupation for wage or profit. If insured's regular occupation is limited to a single medical specialty recognized by the American Board of Medical Specialties (ABMS) or American Osteopathic Association Bureau of Osteopathic Specialists (AOABOS) or American Dental Association (ADA), that specialty is deemed insured's regular occupation.	The definition of disability in Platinum Advantage's base policy is a regular occupation definition, meaning the insured is considered totally disabled if unable to perform the normally required duties of his or her regular occupation and is not engaged in any other work.
 Own Occupation Rider	Own occupation definition included in base as definition of total disability.	For occupation classes 5A, 5P, 4A, 4P, 4S, 3A, 3D and 3P, option to elect Own Occupation Rider, under which an insured is totally disabled if unable to perform with reasonable continuity the substantial and material acts necessary to perform his or her regular occupation in the usual and customary way, even if engaged in any other occupation for wage or profit. If the insured's regular occupation is limited to a single medical specialty recognized by the American Board of Medical Specialties (ABMS) or American Osteopathic Association Bureau of Osteopathic Specialists (AOABOS) or American Dental Association (ADA), that specialty is deemed insured's regular occupation. If insured is an attorney and has limited regular occupation to the performance of the usual and customary activities of a trial attorney, then trial attorney will be deemed insured's regular occupation.	Having the own occupation definition of total disability as a rider with Platinum Advantage allows the policy to be more flexible for those individuals who do not want or need to pay for the own occupation definition. Specialty language for trial attorneys is included in the Own Occupation Rider with Platinum Advantage. With Protector Platinum, it was included in the base policy.

Protector PlatinumSM vs. Platinum Advantage

Policy Feature	Protector Platinum	Platinum Advantage	Key Differences
 Partial Disability/Enhanced Residual Disability Rider	Protector Platinum partial disability benefits are provided in the base policy. The insured will be considered partially disabled during the initial period if there is at least a 20% loss of duties, time or income. The initial period is defined as the benefit waiting period and the first six months that benefits are payable. During this initial period, after the benefit waiting period is satisfied, the benefit payable is equal to the basic monthly benefit. After the initial period, a benefit will be paid as long as there is at least a 20% loss of income. Benefit varies based on income loss. Immediately after insured has recovered from disability, a recovery benefit will be paid if insured experiences a loss of income of at least 20%, and the loss of income is solely the result of the previous injury or sickness. Monthly benefit will be proportionate to loss of earnings. This language is included in the base policy.	Platinum Advantage residual disability benefits are provided by optional rider. During the elimination period insured will be considered residually disabled if there is at least a 20% loss of duties, time or income. After the elimination period, a benefit will be paid as long as there is at least a 20% loss of income. Benefit varies based on income loss but during first 12 months the benefit will be no less than 50% of monthly benefit. Recovery benefit paid if, after a period of disability, insured is working in regular or any occupation at least as many hours as prior to disability and continues to have a loss of earnings of at least 20%, and loss of earnings is solely the result of the previous sickness or injury. The amount of the recovery benefit will be proportionate to loss of earnings. Premium waiver applies while recovery benefits are paid. The Enhanced Residual Disability Rider will be added to all policies for occupation classes 5A, 5P, 4A, 4P, 4S, 3A, 3D and 3P.	Platinum Advantage removes the residual (partial disability) and recovery language from the base policy and introduces it as a rider. The Enhanced Residual Disability Rider allows the insured to meet the definition of disability during the elimination period if there is at least a 20% loss of duties or time or income; and after the elimination period insured must experience at least a 20% loss of income. It also pays a 50% minimum benefit for up to 12 months. The Enhanced Residual Disability Rider does not pay six months of the full monthly benefit after the elimination period as was paid under Protector Platinum. The recovery benefit, included with the Enhanced Residual Disability Rider requires the insured to be working in his or her regular occupation or any other occupation and working at least as many hours worked prior to disability, in addition to having at least a 20% loss of earnings.
 Short-Term Residual Disability Rider	Not available.	The insured will be considered residually disabled and may receive up to six months of residual disability benefits if there is at least a 20% loss of income. The amount of residual disability benefit will be 50% of the policy's basic monthly benefit for a loss of income between 20 and 80%. If the loss of income is greater than 80%, the benefit will equal the full basic monthly benefit. No recovery benefit included. The Short-Term Residual Disability Rider will be added to all policies for occupation classes 2A, 2P, A and B.
