

Important update: Web address changes for Connex and customer websites

As Corebridge Financial continues its transition from AIG Life and Retirement, the websites used by our financial professionals and customers have moved to new addresses.

Effective immediately, the web addresses have changed for these sites:

Connex (financial professional website)

New address: <https://connex.corebridgefinancial.com>

Life Customer website

New address: <https://www.lifeportal.corebridgefinancial.com>

Annuities Customer website

New address: <https://portal.annuities.corebridgefinancial.com>

Note: This change only affects the addresses used to access the sites. Site features, navigation and functionality will remain the same, and user names and passwords will not change.

If you have bookmarked any of these sites, you must update your bookmarks to access these sites. The previous addresses will not work after March 31, 2024, and will generate an error message.

Act now to update your bookmark settings

You will need to update your bookmarks to ensure uninterrupted access to your business.

The addresses previously used for Connex and our customer websites will not work after March 31, 2024.

Follow these steps to update your bookmark setting:

- Click on any of the links at left you need to update.
- When you reach the home page of that site, follow your browser's steps to add the URL to your favorites.
- If you previously favorited the site, be sure to delete the older bookmark.
